Fareham Community Choir Festival

16th June 10am – 2pm

ferneham hall

This event is a new feature of the 3rd Community Showcase, come along and celebrate the joy of singing, with a selection of Fareham's Community Choirs

This is an opportunity to listen to our local dynamic, diverse mixed-voice community choirs, all of which provide a unique musical experience for singers and listeners alike. It is a non competitive event focusing on singing for fun and community involvement. Come along and find out how you can become a member or just to sing along.

Limited seats—Not bookable

Audience entry by donation to

What's happening now?

Welborne Garden Village

- Land ownerships resolved
- Outline planning application being progressed
- Funding in place for Junction 10 M27 scheme (over £60m)
- Railway station feasible
- Will meet a lot of our housing need over next 25 years

What's happening now?

Draft Local Plan

- Autumn 2017 consultation:
 - Over 2,500 submissions and 4,500 comments
- Greatest concerns:
 - Where the houses will go
 - Impact on infrastructure and services

What's happening now?

Housing supply & planning decisions:

- The Council needs a continued 5 year supply of housing sites
- This helps the Council control where development takes place
- Current supply is 4.52 years
- Recent and forthcoming planning permissions granted will add to our supply

What's happening now?

Government planning consultation proposals:

- Want to increase Fareham housing numbers by over 25%
- From 420 homes a year to 530
- May require Fareham to also meet housing need of other local Councils
- Council strongly opposed
