Antisocial Behaviour

A. Antisocial behaviour includes the following:

- Harassment by:
  - Using abusive, threatening or insulting words, behaviour or graffiti.
  - Using or threatening violence against people or pets.
  - Damaging, or threatening to damage, another person’s home or possessions.
  - Sending grossly offensive or threatening letters.
  - Making nuisance phone calls.

- Causing a nuisance, annoyance or disturbance by:
  - Failing to control the behaviour of your children.
  - Offensive drunkenness.
  - Playing loud music or television.
  - Loud arguing or shouting.
  - Banging and slamming doors.
  - D.I.Y. or using household appliances at unreasonable hours.
  - Repeatedly playing ball games against someone else’s property or in a communal area.

- Using the property or the locality for:
  - The purposes of prostitution.
  - Selling, dealing, making, growing or storing illegal drugs.
  - Illegal making, downloading, dealing, distributing or importing pornographic or obscene material or computer images.
  - Smuggling goods, materials, animals or people.
  - Keeping or using an illegal or unauthorised firearm or offensive weapon.
  - Activities related to the incitement of racial hatred including storing or displaying offensive items or materials.

- Issues addressed under the ‘Use of the Property’ section in this agreement may also be acted on as antisocial behaviour. For example:
  - Failing to keep the property in good condition.
♦ Not getting rid of rubbish and unwanted items in a proper way.
♦ Dog fouling or barking.
♦ Keeping unsuitable animals.
♦ Operating a vehicle repair or sale business from the property or locality.

Please note that these are examples of antisocial behaviour and does not mean we cannot take action on behaviour, or other sections of this agreement, not listed here.

B. Examples of action we could take against antisocial behaviour:

- Offer mediation services.
- Ask a court to grant an injunction against those causing the problem.
- Refer the problem to, or work with, other agencies such as Social Services, Environmental Health Services or the Police. These agencies can then use their own powers including fines, seizing of goods or tackling parenting issues.
- Ask a court to end the tenancy of, and evict, the tenant where someone is causing a problem by their antisocial behaviour.
- In the case of a secure tenant, apply to the Court for the secure tenancy to be downgraded to a demoted tenancy— which reduces the security of tenure and removes the tenant’s Right to Buy (if any) for a year.

C. Behaving in an antisocial way can affect your future housing situations:

- We are unlikely to find you another home if you are evicted because of antisocial behaviour, even if you have children or dependents.
- If a record of antisocial behaviour is built up during your tenancy then you stop being our tenant, you may in the future be excluded from applying for rehousing with us or we may give your application less priority.
